

Neighborhoods (physical architecture)

Neighborhoods (physical architecture): Neighborhoods play a vital role in San Jose. This float pays homage to the neighborhood's physical architecture and its response to the climate and place of San Jose resulting in its contribution to the famous California Bungalow style. Designed with emphasis on a single large cottage and garden made entirely out of roses. This ties directly into the Fiesta de la Rosas.